NEBOSH (The National Examination Board in Occupational Safety and Health) was formed in 1979 as an independent examining board and awarding body with charitable status. It offers a comprehensive range of globally-recognized, vocationally-related qualifications designed to meet the health, safety, environmental and risk management needs of all places of work in both the private and public sectors.

Courses leading to NEBOSH qualifications attract around 30,000 candidates annually and are offered by over 400 course providers in 80 countries around the world. NEBOSH qualifications are recognized by the relevant professional membership bodies including the Institution of Occupational Safety and Health (IOSH), the International Institute of Risk and Safety Management (IIRSM) and the Institute of Environmental Management and Assessment (IEMA).

STUDY MATERIALS

GRBS® provides NEBOSH course participants with the following materials for free:

- Study Text
- Power Point Notes
- Examiners Reports for past exams
- Past Examination Papers

Training materials used for NEBOSH preparatory courses are provided from ACT Associates Ltd.

These publications provide an excellent reference for all those with management responsibility in health and safety wherever in the world they may be working. It focuses on international standards and management systems to provide a broad understanding of health and safety principles and practices.

GRBS also delivers ACT Associates Ltd materials in the region. According to our partnership contract with ACT Associates Ltd we offer our clients full range ACT Associates Ltd materials at the lowest prices with the direct delivery services.

EXAMS

NEBOSH sets a number of examination dates on an annual basis, known as "standard" sittings, scheduled at approximately the same time each year for each qualification. GRBS may also arrange NEBOSH examinations for certificate-level qualifications outside of the "standard" examination dates which are called "local" examinations. This allows the students the flexibility to sit examinations at time of their choice.

For more information please visit our web site: www.grbs.com
